R. N. HUDSON.

THANKSGIVING .- Gov. Hammond has issued his proclamation, appointing the 29th day of November as a day of public thanksgiving and prayer throughout this LTLast evening we beheld a large crowd of young rowdies, prancing up and down the streets cursing, chewing Tobacco, smo king, and other very unuseful habits. Those boys will make great men!

DISCORDANT .- Our friend Col. Cookerly forgetting the existence of the late Democratic parties, says the Republican party is made up of discordant elements. Dis cordant is good-used by a Democrat.

No discord in that party-not enough party to maintain a respectable discord. Just So .- We think there is a vast dif ference between men who vote the Republican ticket and those who fuse with Democrats. We don't however treat them with contempt we regret their blindness of mind and are sorry to find them in such bad company.

DON'T WANT OFFICE .- A few days ago the Journal was blating about Republi cans wanting office. For two or three days it has been enumerating the Democratic aspirants to the office of Mayor .-When it gets through we will try to present the aggregate number.

EVANSVILLE RACES .- To-day the races commence on the Evansville course under the superintendence of Andy J. Morse .-The races will continue three days and will be very attractive. The match be tween J. D. Bell's old Pet and Morse's mare Parthens, is exciting much interest among lovers of the Turf. Trains on the Paddock have just opened a magnificent E. & C. R. R. leave the Depot each morning at 5, and at 11 o'clock.

Parke and Vermillion Grand Hally The Republicans of Parke and Vermillion counties will hold a GRAND MASS MEETING AT MONTEZUMA OF

We examined the chronicles of past ages and learned that just before the Indiana State election such things had been.

Our heart was made glad a day or two not give a good account of ourselves dusince upon learning that a word of ours ring that short period. After a careful reconnoisance of the premises we are led to the conclusion that no more complete or desir able stock of goods has ever been brought to this city. The proprieter himself, a gentleman in every sense of the word, is assisted by his brother Moses Alschuler who is universally popular as a salesman, until after the November election. Let also by Mr. G. W. Ball who is likewise a favorite with those who go shopping.

We have no time to amplify on this subject, we have pointed to the fact that Mr. Alschu has a fine fresh stock of goods at the old Carlisle corner, and those who Until the battle's done. would seek their own interests will go and examine for themselves.

Don't YOU WANT TO FUSE WITH THEM !-Just now when our Democratic adopted citizens are being urged to fuse with the Bell and Everett men, it may be interesting to that portion of our fellow citizens to know how they are contrasted by the Bell organs with the Anglo Saxon upper crust Democracy. A Missouri Bell-Everett editor speaking of the manner in which the different parties will approach the polls on the 6th of November, in Missouri,

The Douglas man will think to himself, as he walks along, there is "no chance" for my favorite, and I will vote for Bell and Everett, just to assist in flooring Breckinridge and Lane. The Breckinridge man will make his way to the precinct, rolling a quid in his mouth, or smoking a ten center, all the way cogitating the good of his country, and coming to the concluslon that the only way to do good, will be to vote for Bell and Everett-and at the same time to defeat Douglas and Johnson. struggle against the Amelekites. Let all therefore who love the cause and who can possibly leave home for one more day come up to Headquarters on Thursday night and arrange to go and devote spreading over the land.

A GOOD TIME GENERALLY .- The Repubicans and Wide Awakes had a good and soul cheering meeting last night though the attendance was not quite so large as usual. Several short speeches were made, songs were sung, enthusiasm was juspired and a goodly number pledged themselves to go to Marshall on Friday, to cheer the souls of their brethren still in bonds. Among the speakers was a Bell man, who being called upon made the speech of the evening. We regret that we cannot give a verbatim report of it as it abounded with good sense, a rich vein of humor, and bus of Democratic corruption and misrule was rapturously applauded.

Speaking of Fusion he said, "I have always been in favor of fusion. I had hoped the thing burst up as it has done everywhere else. It would be interesting to see a procession of the fusionists with their respective banners and mottoes. There goes a Bell man with his banner inscribed 'No foreigner can march in this crowd.'-Then comes a squatter with My gur-reat pur-rinciple and Unfriendly Legislation ; next a banner inscribed 'Slavery extension and the Dred Scott Decision.' It would be a beautiful sight, and would last unti they had marched nearly a square, when he thought the fusion would bust up." Altogether it was a good meeting.
